

Junior Blue Team Newsletter January 2012

TEAM NEWS

January 28th: U.S Qualifiers in Buffalo, NY

This competition is quickly approaching! Everyone please make sure to have all required documents to cross the border.

COACHES CORNER

Girls after a long break we need to make sure we are getting back into the groove of things! We have come so far we want to keep pushing forward. It is important to continue working hard to accomplish those new skills. That means stretching out at home and practicing counts so that we can execute our routine to its full potential.

Athlete of the Month

Nicole Eisen is the newest member of the Junior Blue Team. She has learned all aspect of cheerleading in such little time. She has quickly become a member of our family. She has been extremely encouraging to all members of the team always coming to practice with a smile ready to try anything.
